

EMPOWERING WOMEN AND GIRLS

October 2016 – March 2022 | Every Last One Campaign

SUMMARY

Thanks to you, in the last six and a half years, more than 25 million women and girls participated in World Vision programs that are improving their lives and opportunities. And every single one of them has a name and a story, like Soweibe (pictured at right).

Your support of World Vision's work is helping women and girls overcome barriers that keep them from having productive and positive lives. Our holistic approach enables us to address the biggest obstacles—not just one—holding back girls and women in poverty.

From October 2021 through March 2022, we reached 4,151,144 women and girls with clean water, emergency humanitarian services, protection, economic empowerment, mother and child healthcare, and education.

*This total includes unique participants in six of our seven signature initiative programs: Child Protection, Economic Empowerment, Education, Emergency Response, Mother and Child Health, and Water. Given our multisector approach, some women and girls have participated in multiple programs.

In Zimbabwe alone, since 2018, we helped empower 53,162 students (34,974 girls). WASH UP! Girl Talk, created in partnership with Sesame Workshop, helps students learn about menstrual health and hygiene, and promotes self-confidence among girls and support from male peers. Their schools also received water and sanitation facilities.

Thank you for your partnership and your trust. Together, we are changing the trajectory of millions of lives—now and for generations to come.

Soweibe Djibo, 20, wants the very best for her 1-year-old daughter, Fatima. So, when World Vision provided clean water and other support services to Kargui Bangou Health Center in Niger, she was elated. Above, Fatima enjoys a cool drink of clean water before receiving her vaccinations.

-
11,523,749 women and girls gained access to clean water close to home, significantly reducing the time they spend walking and hauling water.
-
7,959,319 women and girls impacted by disasters and humanitarian crises received life-saving, emergency support services such as food assistance, protection, and livelihood training.
-
2,859,851 women gained access to financial services, savings groups, agricultural training, technology, and markets.
-
1,825,691 women and girls benefited from programs that educated community members, increased protection, and challenged harmful cultural norms such as child marriage.
-
778,528 women of child-bearing age gained access to maternal and child healthcare and nutrition services.
-
80,211 women and girls benefited from education programs, including literacy, life skills, livelihood training, early childhood development, and investments in safe schools.

For more information visit: worldvisionphilanthropy.org/women

World Vision is a Christian humanitarian organization dedicated to working with children, families, and their communities worldwide to reach their full potential by tackling the causes of poverty and injustice. Motivated by our faith in Jesus Christ, we serve alongside the poor and oppressed as a demonstration of God's unconditional love for all people. World Vision serves all people, regardless of religion, race, ethnicity, or gender.