

Relationships in God's Story

As your teacher reads, write down examples of right relationships, broken relationships, and restored relationships that you recognize in the story. Relationships can be between God and people, people and other people, people and their environment, etc.

Right Relationships What is good? What is working?	Broken Relationships What went wrong? What stopped working?	Restored Relationships What was fixed? What was made good once again?