

Don't you know that you yourselves are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in your midst? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person; for God's temple is sacred, and you together are that temple.

- 1 Corinthians 3:16-17 (NIV)

“The poor and needy search for water,
but there is none;
their tongues are parched with thirst.
But I the Lord will answer them;
I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.

- Isaiah 41:17-18 (NIV)

“You have to understand what justice is. Justice is basically righting wrongs. God works through me to do what is right.”

- Shelby, Albany, GA (Understanding God's Heart for Justice: A Devotional for Young People)

“Serving is a sacrificing time to help others, whether it is feeding the hungry, community service, or advocating. Having a servant attitude keeps me focused on the goals I am trying to accomplish.”

- Shelby, Albany, GA (Understanding God's Heart for Justice: A Devotional for Young People)

When it comes to advocating for justice everything won't always come out the way you want [it] to. You have to be persistent and assertive. Have patience; little things go a long way.

- Garbriela, the Bronx, NY (Understanding God's Heart for Justice: A Devotional for Young People)

“Never look at the cup as half-empty but as half-full, and always be optimistic about the future. Think about how you can make this world a better place. Always remember that a partnership is more effective than working alone.
