

BOLIVIA

A young girl with dark hair, smiling broadly, holds a small photograph of her family (a man, a woman, and two children) in front of her. She is wearing a dark grey dress over a white long-sleeved shirt. The background is a solid teal wall. Scattered around her are numerous other photographs of various sizes, mostly depicting children and family members in different settings. Each of these photographs is decorated with several small, colorful, cartoonish stickers, including characters like a yellow bird, a green alien, and a red devil. The photos show children playing, reading, posing with adults, and in various outdoor and indoor environments. One photo shows a group of children in a field, another shows a child reading a book, and others show children in costumes or with pets. The overall composition suggests a collection of cherished childhood memories.
