

3.3.B

Creation

God saw all that He had made, and it was very good.—Genesis 1:31 (NIV)

God's good creation meets all of our needs.

What do we need to live?

3.3.B

Fall

But your sins have separated you from your God. They have caused him to turn his face away from you. So he won't listen to you.—Isaiah 59:2 (NIRV)

There is brokenness in the world because of sin's separation.

Where do we see brokenness in our world?

3.3.B

Redemption

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners,
Christ died for us.—Romans 5:8 (NIV)

God sent Jesus Christ as a rescue plan for the world—Jesus died on the cross and rose again so we can have a right relationship again.

How does this truth tell us about God's love?

3.3.B

Restoration

And he who was seated on the throne said, “Behold, I am making all things new.” Also he said, “Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.”—Revelation 21:5 (ESV)

Through Jesus Christ’s saving work, God is making all things new—a new heaven on Earth. He wants us all to take part in his restoring work.

What are some things that we can do to help bring goodness back to God’s world?
