

Theme	Social system	Lie
Captivity to our own god complex	Social Political Economic Religious	We are the social system. It is right that we be served. We are the key to successful economics. God has chosen us.
Marred identity of the non-poor	Social Political Economic Religious	We are better at running things. We were made to make decisions for others. Having and winning is all there is. We are the blessed of God.
Inadequacies in worldview	Social Political Economic Religious	Our place in the social order is fixed. We are intended to rule. It's a competition; some win, some don't. God has a formula for success, and they didn't follow it.

Figure 4-17: The web of lies of the non-poor.